Day 1, Sunday:

It all started at home at 4:00am, I woke up and was happy to go straight to England, I got up and was later started. My mother drove me to school where half an hour later the bus came to Brighton. I was very happy because I have never been to England right now, just at the airport. We got on the bus and we drove off. I sat next to Yanik what was very funny. After some hours we arrived at the border to England, on the ferry I was very tired and waited until we arrived in Dover. Later, when we arrived in England, I slept on the bus trip to Brighton. We arrived at Brighton at a supermarket car park and were picked up by the host family. When we arrived at home we made the room layout, I was with Jamal and Yanik in a room and Gabriel had a room alone. In the evening we were in the family and eaten, there was spaghetti. At night I went to sleep slowly.

Day 2, Monday:

I slept very well and woke up at 6am and was excited to go to Brighton later. I got dressed up and went for a shower, I finished and went for breakfast, I had cereal and immediately afterwards we went out, our guest family showed us the way to the meeting place. Shortly before 8am we were there and got on the bus. We drove again, I was very fascinated by the houses and buildings in Brighton. Later I did a rallye with some from the class, which proved to me that there are many mountains there. Immediately afterwards we ate a sandwich at Subway. Elis and me wanted to go shopping, we were looking for something on the internet, there was a big shopping center in the near, we absolutely wanted to go and go then. The shopping center was very large and had lots of cool shops. I had buy some gifts and clothes. Later we met with the class in front of the pier and chilled there. At the end we drove home to the host family ate and went sleeping.

Day 3, Tuesday:

I woke up and wanted to go straight to London, It was always my dream to go to London and then it was so far, I took a shower Afterwards we ate and went off. At 8am we were all on the bus and went to London, I was so much excited. After 2 hours we arrived at the o2 Arena and took the subway to Westminster. Shortly after that we made a city tour over Westminster Bridge to the Tower Bridge where we went out and had a small Thames trip to the London Eye. After the Thames trip we went by the subway to Oxford Street where I bought again very much. After my shopping trip, I was still with some people from my class at Starbucks and have been sitting around a bit. After Starbucks I was still in a small souvenir shop where I bought a key hanger and immediately afterwards was again the meeting with the whole class. We went to the meeting place at the o2 Arena and were then in the guest families later.

Day 4, Wednesday:

First we went early to the near of Eastbourne to make a cliff walk which I personally was very exhausting because I am not usual to climbing mountains up and down because we have no mountains at home. Later I bought another ice cream when we arrived after 1-2 hours and then we went to Hastings, on the bus trip most of us slept, me too. In Hastings we did a teatime which I did not find so good because I expected much more. After the teatime we were able to walk around Hastings a bit, me and Yanik were hungry and went to KFC where we also saw Fardin. In the end we did not do much and went back to the family.

Day 5, Thursday:

On Thursday we made a small cliff walk to the Brighton Pier, I found it worse than yesterday but where we arrived in Brighton later we should decide whether we wanted to go the Royal Pavillion or lookout tower. I decided for the view tower , It was very nice from above and I enjoyed it very much. After the lookout tower I still ate something with Kadriye, Ayse, Zeynep and Yanik. Later we went to the shopping center where I was on Monday where we bought some clothes and went straight to Starbucks. In the end we were still a bit on the pier, we went around with some carousels and the day ended slowly.

Day 6, Friday:

When we arrived in London, we were at a park, where we had to walk to the Thames and to the Thames ride which drove us back to the London Eye / Westminster. When we arrived, we then made a little break where we then went to Buckingham Palace and chilled, there I thought it was very beautiful. 1 hour later we wanted to go slowly to the Camden Market, which we did afterwards. You had to go there a long time but we are still there. There I still bought gifts and we were ate at KFC. Later at 6pm we met at the main entrance where I bought another orange juice. We went to the subway station where then also a small accident happened during the trip but we arrived in time to the bus where we then went home.

On Monday we were in Brighton. We had a small rally. After that, we had free time. I was with my friends at the pier. Brighton was very interesting and cool.

On Tuesday we were in London. In London we had a ship trip. The sights were very cool. I think Big Ben was the best.

On the next day we were in Hastings. In Hastings we had tea time. It was very funny, because the woman was really funny and she spoke really in a high voice .

On Thursday we were in Brighton again. I was in the General Admission Royal Pavillion.

On our last day we went to Camden Market. I don't like Camden Market, because the people were very intrusive. But actually it was nice. I want to visit England again.
